

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
DALLAS DIVISION

GERALD FOLEY, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, v.

Plaintiff,

AT&T, INC.,

Defendant.

Case No. 24-cv-819

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff Gerald Foley (“Plaintiff”) brings this class action against Defendant AT&T, Inc. (“AT&T” or “Defendant”) for its failure to properly secure and safeguard Plaintiff’s and Class Members’, personally identifiable information (“PII”), stored within Defendant’s information network.

INTRODUCTION

1. AT&T, formally known as American Telephone and Telegraph Company, is a multinational telecommunications conglomerate offering connectivity services.
2. Defendant acquired, collected, and stored Plaintiff’s and Class Members’ PII.
3. At all relevant times, Defendant knew or should have known, that Plaintiff and Class Members would use Defendant’s services to store and/or share sensitive data, including highly confidential PII.
4. On no later than March 30, 2024, AT&T publicly announced an ongoing investigation of a data breach, and upon information and belief, unauthorized third-party cybercriminals gained access to Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII as hosted with Defendant, with the intent of engaging in the misuse of the PII, including marketing and selling Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII.¹

5. The total number of individuals who have had their data exposed due to Defendant's failure to implement appropriate security safeguards is more than 70 million current and former customers leaked on the dark web.²

6. Personally identifiable information ("PII") generally incorporates information that can be used to distinguish or trace an individual's identity, and is generally defined to include certain identifiers that do not on their face name an individual, but that is considered to be particularly sensitive and/or valuable if in the wrong hands (for example, Social Security numbers, passport numbers, driver's license numbers, financial account numbers).

7. The vulnerable and potentially exposed data at issue of Plaintiff and the Class stored on Defendant's information network, includes, without limitation: social security numbers, full names, email and mailing addresses, phone numbers, and dates of birth, as well as AT&T account numbers and passcodes.³

8. Defendant disregarded the rights of Plaintiff and Class Members by intentionally, willfully, recklessly, or negligently failing to take and implement adequate and reasonable measures to ensure that Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII was safeguarded, failing to take available steps to prevent unauthorized disclosure of data, and failing to follow applicable, required and appropriate protocols, policies and procedures regarding the encryption of data, even for internal use.

9. As a result, the PII of Plaintiff and Class Members was compromised through disclosure to an unknown and unauthorized third party—an undoubtedly nefarious third party that seeks to profit off this disclosure by defrauding Plaintiff and Class Members in the future.

10. Plaintiff and Class Members have a continuing interest in ensuring that their information is and remains safe, and they are thus entitled to injunctive and other equitable relief.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11. Jurisdiction is proper in this Court under 28 U.S.C. §1332 (diversity jurisdiction). Specifically, this Court has subject matter and diversity jurisdiction over this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d) because this is a class action where the amount in controversy exceeds the sum or value of $5 million, exclusive of interest and costs, there are more than 100 members in the proposed class, and at least one class member is a citizen of a state different from Defendant.

12. Supplemental jurisdiction to adjudicate issues pertaining to state law is proper in this Court under 28 U.S.C. §1337.

13. Defendant is headquartered and routinely conducts business in the State where this district is located, has sufficient minimum contacts in this State, and has intentionally availed itself of this jurisdiction by marketing and selling products and services, and by accepting and processing payments for those products and services within this State.

14. Venue is proper in this Court under 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because a substantial part of the events that gave rise to Plaintiff's claims occurred within this District, and Defendant does business in this Judicial District.

THE PARTIES

Plaintiff Gerald Foley

15. Plaintiff Gerald Foley is an adult individual and, at all relevant times herein, a resident and citizen of Virginia, residing in Woodbridge, Virginia. Plaintiff is a victim of the Data Breach.

16. Plaintiff has been a customer of AT&T for over 20 years. Most recently, Plaintiff has a DirecTV service through AT&T, but previously had wireless phone plans through AT&T as well.

17. Plaintiff's information was stored with Defendant as a result of their dealings with Defendant.

18. As required in order to obtain services from Defendant, Plaintiff provided Defendant with highly personal who then possessed and controlled it.

19. As a result, Plaintiff's information was among the data accessed by an unauthorized third-party in the Data Breach.

20. At all times herein relevant, Plaintiff is and was a member of the Class.

21. Plaintiff received an email from AT&T, dated March 31, 2024, stating that their PII was involved in the Data Breach (the "Notice").

22. So far, the AT&T has not identified the source of the data leak, at least publicly.

23. Plaintiff was unaware of the Data Breach until receiving that email.

24. Moreover, although undisclosed in the Notice, it has come to light that much of the information leaked in the Data Breach is for sale on the Dark Web.⁴ Within the last six months, Plaintiff has received notifications that his PII was found on the Dark Web.

⁴ <https://www.npr.org/2024/03/30/1241863710/att-data-breach-dark-web> (last accessed Apr. 1, 2024).

25. As a result, Plaintiff was injured in the form of lost time dealing with the consequences of the Data Breach, which included and continues to include: time spent verifying the legitimacy and impact of the Data Breach; time spent exploring credit monitoring and identity theft insurance options; time spent self-monitoring their accounts with heightened scrutiny and time spent seeking legal counsel regarding their options for remedying and/or mitigating the effects of the Data Breach.

26. Plaintiff was also injured by the material risk to future harm Plaintiff suffers based on Defendant's breach; this risk is imminent and substantial because Plaintiff's data has been exposed in the breach, the data involved, including Social Security numbers, is highly sensitive and presents a high risk of identity theft or fraud; and it is likely, given Defendant's clientele, that some of the Class's information that has been exposed has already been misused.

27. Plaintiff suffered actual injury in the form of damages to and diminution in the value of their PII—a condition of intangible property that they entrusted to Defendant, which was compromised in and as a result of the Data Breach.

28. Plaintiff, as a result of the Data Breach, has increased anxiety for their loss of privacy and anxiety over the impact of cybercriminals accessing, using, and selling their PII.

29. Additionally, Plaintiff has experienced an uptick in spam calls and texts within the last six months.

30. Plaintiff has suffered imminent and impending injury arising from the substantially increased risk of fraud, identity theft, and misuse resulting from their PII, in combination with their name, being placed in the hands of unauthorized third parties/criminals.

31. Plaintiff has a continuing interest in ensuring that their PII, which, upon information and belief, remains backed up in Defendant's possession, is protected and safeguarded from future breaches.

Defendant AT&T, Inc.

32. Defendant AT&T, Inc., is a Texas corporation headquartered at 08 S. Akard Street, Suite 2954, Dallas, Texas 75202.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

33. Plaintiff brings this action pursuant to the provisions of Rules 23(a), (b)(2), and (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on behalf of themself and the following Class:

All individuals within the United States of America whose PII and/or financial information was exposed to unauthorized third-parties as a result of the data breach disclosed by Defendant on March 2024 ("Nationwide Class").

34. Plaintiff also brings this action on behalf of themselves and the following Subclass:

All individuals within the State of Virginia whose PII and/or financial information was exposed to unauthorized third-parties as a result of the data breach disclosed by Defendant on March 2024 ("Virginia Subclass."⁵)

35. Excluded from the Class are the following individuals and/or entities: Defendant and Defendant's parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers and directors, and any entity in which Defendant has a controlling interest; all individuals who make a timely election to be excluded from this proceeding using the correct protocol for opting out; any and all federal, state or local governments, including but not limited to its departments, agencies, divisions, bureaus, boards, sections, groups, counsels and/or subdivisions; and all judges assigned to hear any aspect of this litigation, as well as its immediate family members.

⁵ Unless specified, the term "Class" is used throughout to refer to both the Nationwide Class and the Virginia Subclass.

36. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend the above definitions or to propose subclasses in subsequent pleadings and motions for class certification.

37. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 23 because there is a well-defined community of interest in the litigation, and membership in the proposed classes is easily ascertainable.

38. Numerosity: A class action is the only available method for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy, as the members of the Class are so numerous that joinder of all members is impractical, if not impossible.

39. Commonality: Plaintiff and the Class Members share a community of interests in that there are numerous common questions and issues of fact and law which predominate over any questions and issues solely affecting individual members, including, but not necessarily limited to:

- a. Whether Defendant had a legal duty to Plaintiff and the Class to exercise due care in collecting, storing, using, and/or safeguarding their PII;
- b. Whether Defendant knew or should have known of the susceptibility of its data security systems to a data breach;
- c. Whether Defendant's security procedures and practices to protect its systems were reasonable in light of the measures recommended by data security experts;
- d. Whether Defendant's failure to implement adequate data security measures allowed the Data Breach to occur;

- e. Whether Defendant failed to comply with its own policies and applicable laws, regulations, and industry standards relating to data security;
- f. Whether Defendant adequately, promptly, and accurately informed Plaintiff and Class Members that their PII had been compromised;
- g. How and when Defendant actually learned of the Data Breach;
- h. Whether Defendant's conduct, including its failure to act, resulted in or was the proximate cause of the breach of its systems, resulting in the loss of the PII of Plaintiff and Class Members;
- i. Whether Defendant adequately addressed and fixed the vulnerabilities which permitted the Data Breach to occur;
- j. Whether Defendant engaged in unfair, unlawful, or deceptive practices by failing to safeguard the PII of Plaintiff and Class Members;
- k. Whether Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to actual and/or statutory damages and/or whether injunctive, corrective and/or declaratory relief and/or accounting is/are appropriate as a result of Defendant's wrongful conduct; and
- l. Whether Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to restitution as a result of Defendant's wrongful conduct.

40. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the Class. Plaintiff and all members of the Class sustained damages arising out of and caused by Defendant's common course of conduct in violation of law, as alleged herein.

41. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiff in this class action is an adequate representative of the Class in that the Plaintiff has the same interest in the litigation of this case as the Class Members, is committed to the vigorous prosecution of this case and has retained competent counsel who are experienced in conducting litigation of this nature.

42. Plaintiff is not subject to any individual defenses unique from those conceivably applicable to other Class Members or the class in its entirety. Plaintiff anticipates no management difficulties in this litigation.

43. Superiority of Class Action: Since the damages suffered by individual Class Members, while not inconsequential, may be relatively small, the expense and burden of individual litigation by each member make or may make it impractical for members of the Class to seek redress individually for the wrongful conduct alleged herein. Should separate actions be brought or be required to be brought, by each individual member of the Class, the resulting multiplicity of lawsuits would cause undue hardship and expense for the Court and the litigants.

44. The prosecution of separate actions would also create a risk of inconsistent rulings, which might be dispositive of the interests of the Class Members who are not parties to the adjudications and/or may substantially impede their ability to protect their interests adequately.

45. This class action is also appropriate for certification because Defendant has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to Class Members, thereby requiring the Court's imposition of uniform relief to ensure compatible standards of conduct toward the Class Members and making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the Class in its entirety.

46. Defendant's policies and practices challenged herein apply to and affect Class

Members uniformly and Plaintiff's challenge of these policies and practices hinges on Defendant's conduct with respect to the Class in its entirety, not on facts or law applicable only to Plaintiff.

47. Unless a Class-wide injunction is issued, Defendant may continue failing to properly secure the PII of Class Members, and Defendant may continue to act unlawfully as set forth in this Complaint.

48. Further, Defendant has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class and, accordingly, final injunctive or corresponding declaratory relief with regard to the Class Members as a whole is appropriate under Rule 23(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

COMMON FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Defendant's Failed Response to the Breach

49. Not until after months it claims to have discovered the Data Breach did Defendant begin sending the Notice to persons whose PII Defendant confirmed was potentially compromised as a result of the Data Breach.

50. The Notice included, inter alia, basic details of the Data Breach, Defendant's recommended next steps, and Defendant's claims that it had learned of the Data Breach on March 30, 2024, and completed a review thereafter.

51. On March 30, 2024, AT&T posted the following message on its website⁶:

AT&T Addresses Recent Data Set Released on the Dark Web

AT&T has determined that AT&T data-specific fields were contained in a data set released on the dark web; source is still being assessed.

AT&T* has determined that AT&T data-specific fields were contained in a data set released on the dark web approximately two weeks ago. While AT&T has made this determination, it is not yet known whether the data in those fields originated from AT&T or one of its vendors. With respect to the balance of the data set, which includes personal information such as social security numbers, the source of the data is still being assessed.

AT&T has launched a robust investigation supported by internal and external cybersecurity experts. Based on our preliminary analysis, the data set appears to be from 2019 or earlier, impacting approximately 7.6 million current AT&T account holders and approximately 65.4 million former account holders.

Currently, AT&T does not have evidence of unauthorized access to its systems resulting in exfiltration of the data set. The company is communicating proactively with those impacted and will be offering credit monitoring at our expense where applicable. We encourage current and former customers with questions to visit www.att.com/accountsafety for more information.

As of today, this incident has not had a material impact on AT&T's operations.

52. Upon information and belief, the unauthorized third-party cybercriminals gained access to Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII with the intent of engaging in the misuse of the PII, including marketing and selling Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII.

53. Defendant had and continues to have obligations federal and state law as set forth herein, reasonable industry standards, common law, and its own assurances and representations to keep Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII confidential and to protect such PII from unauthorized access.

54. Plaintiff and Class Members were required to provide their PII to Defendant as a result of their dealings, and in furtherance of this relationship, Defendant created, collected, and stored Plaintiff and Class Members with the reasonable expectation and mutual understanding that Defendant would comply with its obligations to keep such information confidential and secure from unauthorized access.

55. Despite this, Plaintiff and the Class Members remain, even today, in the dark regarding what particular data was stolen, the particular malware used, and what steps are being taken, if any, to secure their PII going forward.

56. Plaintiff and Class Members are, thus, left to speculate as to where their PII ended up, who has used it, and for what potentially nefarious purposes, and are left to further speculate as to the full impact of the Data Breach and how exactly Defendant intends to enhance its information security systems and monitoring capabilities to prevent further breaches.

57. Unauthorized individuals can now easily access the PII and/or financial information of Plaintiff and Class Members.

Defendant Collected/Stored Class Members' PII

58. Defendant acquired, collected, and stored and assured reasonable security over Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII.

59. As a condition of its relationships with Plaintiff and Class Members, Defendant required that Plaintiff and Class Members entrust Defendant with highly sensitive and confidential PII.

60. Defendant, in turn, stored that information in the part of Defendant's system that was ultimately affected by the Data Breach.

61. By obtaining, collecting, and storing Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII, Defendant assumed legal and equitable duties and knew or should have known that they were thereafter responsible for protecting Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII from unauthorized disclosure.

62. Plaintiff and Class Members have taken reasonable steps to maintain the confidentiality of their PII.

63. Plaintiff and Class Members relied on Defendant to keep their PII confidential and securely maintained, to use this information for business purposes only, and to make only authorized disclosures of this information.

64. Defendant could have prevented the Data Breach, which began around March 2024, by adequately securing and encrypting and/or more securely encrypting its servers generally, as well as Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII.

65. Defendant's negligence in safeguarding Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII is exacerbated by repeated warnings and alerts directed to protecting and securing sensitive data, as evidenced by the trending data breach attacks in recent years.

66. Yet, despite the prevalence of public announcements of data breach and data security compromises, Defendant failed to take appropriate steps to protect Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII from being compromised.

Defendant Had an Obligation to Protect the Stolen Information

67. Defendant was also prohibited by the Federal Trade Commission Act (the “FTC Act”) (15 U.S.C. § 45) from engaging in “unfair or deceptive acts or practices in or affecting commerce.”⁷

68. In addition to its obligations under federal and state laws, Defendant owed a duty to Plaintiff and Class Members to exercise reasonable care in obtaining, retaining, securing, safeguarding, deleting, and protecting the PII in Defendant’s possession from being compromised, lost, stolen, accessed, and misused by unauthorized persons.

69. Defendant owed a duty to Plaintiff and Class Members to provide reasonable security, including consistency with industry standards and requirements, and to ensure that its computer systems, networks, and protocols adequately protected the PII of Plaintiff and Class Members.

70. Defendant owed a duty to Plaintiff and Class Members to design, maintain, and test its computer systems, servers, and networks to ensure that the PII was adequately secured and protected.

71. Defendant owed a duty to Plaintiff and Class Members to create and implement reasonable data security practices and procedures to protect the PII in its possession, including not sharing information with other entities who maintained sub-standard data security systems.

72. Defendant owed a duty to Plaintiff and Class Members to implement processes that would immediately detect a breach in its data security systems in a timely manner.

73. Defendant owed a duty to Plaintiff and Class Members to act upon data security warnings and alerts in a timely fashion.

⁷ The Federal Trade Commission (the “FTC”) has concluded that a company’s failure to maintain reasonable and appropriate data security for consumers’ sensitive personal information is an “unfair practice” in violation of the FTC Act. See, e.g., FTC v. Wyndham Worldwide Corp., 799 F.3d 236 (3d Cir. 2015).

74. Defendant owed a duty to Plaintiff and Class Members to disclose if its computer systems and data security practices were inadequate to safeguard individuals' PII and/or financial information from theft because such an inadequacy would be a material fact in the decision to entrust this PII to Defendant.

75. Defendant owed a duty of care to Plaintiff and Class Members because they were foreseeable and probable victims of any inadequate data security practices.

76. Defendant owed a duty to Plaintiff and Class Members to encrypt and/or more reliably encrypt Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and monitor user behavior and activity in order to identify possible threats.

Value of the Relevant Sensitive Information

77. PII are valuable commodities for which a "cyber black market" exists in which criminals openly post stolen payment card numbers, Social Security numbers, and other personal information on several underground internet websites.

78. Numerous sources cite dark web pricing for stolen identity credentials; for example, personal information can be sold at a price ranging from $40 to $200, and bank details have a price range of $50 to $200⁸; Experian reports that a stolen credit or debit card number can sell for $5 to $110 on the dark web⁹; and other sources report that criminals can also purchase access to entire company data breaches from $999 to $4,995.¹⁰

¹⁰ In the Dark, VPNOverview, 2019, available at: <https://vpnoverview.com/privacy/anonymous/>

79. Identity thieves can use PII, such as that of Plaintiff and Class Members, which Defendant failed to keep secure, to perpetrate a variety of crimes that harm victims—for instance, identity thieves may commit various types of government fraud such as immigration fraud, obtaining a driver’s license or identification card in the victim’s name but with another’s picture, using the victim’s information to obtain government benefits, or filing a fraudulent tax return using the victim’s information to obtain a fraudulent refund.

80. There may be a time lag between when harm occurs versus when it is discovered, and also between when PII and/or financial information is stolen and when it is used: according to the U.S. Government Accountability Office (“GAO”), which conducted a study regarding data breaches:

[L]aw enforcement officials told us that in some cases, stolen data might be held for up to a year or more before being used to commit identity theft. Further, once stolen data have been sold or posted on the Web, fraudulent use of that information may continue for years. As a result, studies that attempt to measure the harm resulting from data breaches cannot necessarily rule out all future harm.¹¹

81. Here, Defendant knew of the importance of safeguarding PII and of the foreseeable consequences that would occur if Plaintiff’s and Class Members’ PII were stolen, including the significant costs that would be placed on Plaintiff and Class Members as a result of a breach of this magnitude.

82. As detailed above, Defendant is a sophisticated organization with the resources to deploy robust cybersecurity protocols. It knew, or should have known, that the development and use of such protocols were necessary to fulfill its statutory and common law duties to Plaintiff and Class Members. Therefore, its failure to do so is intentional, willful, reckless and/or grossly negligent.

83. Defendant disregarded the rights of Plaintiff and Class Members by, inter alia, (i) intentionally, willfully, recklessly, or negligently failing to take adequate and reasonable measures to ensure that its network servers were protected against unauthorized intrusions; (ii) failing to disclose that they did not have adequately robust security protocols and training practices in place to adequately safeguard Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII; (iii) failing to take standard and reasonably available steps to prevent the Data Breach; (iv) concealing the existence and extent of the Data Breach for an unreasonable duration of time; and (v) failing to provide Plaintiff and Class Members prompt and accurate notice of the Data Breach.

CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

COUNT ONE Negligence (On behalf of the Class)

84. Plaintiff realleges and reincorporates every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

85. At all times herein relevant, Defendant owed Plaintiff and Class Members a duty of care, inter alia, to act with reasonable care to secure and safeguard their PII and to use commercially reasonable methods to do so. Defendant took on this obligation upon accepting and storing the PII of Plaintiff and Class Members in its computer systems and on its networks.

86. Among these duties, Defendant was expected:

- a. to exercise reasonable care in obtaining, retaining, securing, safeguarding, deleting, and protecting the PII in its possession;
- b. to protect Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII using reasonable and adequate security procedures and systems that were/are compliant with industry-standard practices;

- c. to implement processes to detect the Data Breach quickly and to timely act on warnings about data breaches; and
- d. to promptly notify Plaintiff and Class Members of any data breach, security incident, or intrusion that affected or may have affected their PII.

87. Defendant knew that the PII was private and confidential and should be protected as private and confidential and, thus, Defendant owed a duty of care not to subject Plaintiff and Class Members to an unreasonable risk of harm because they were foreseeable and probable victims of any inadequate security practices.

88. Defendant knew, or should have known, of the risks inherent in collecting and storing PII, the vulnerabilities of its data security systems, and the importance of adequate security.

89. Defendant knew about numerous, well-publicized data breaches.

90. Defendant knew, or should have known, that its data systems and networks did not adequately safeguard Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII.

91. Only Defendant was in the position to ensure that its systems and protocols were sufficient to protect the PII that Plaintiff and Class Members had entrusted to it.

92. Defendant breached its duties to Plaintiff and Class Members by failing to provide fair, reasonable, or adequate computer systems and data security practices to safeguard their PII.

93. Because Defendant knew that a breach of its systems could damage thousands of individuals, including Plaintiff and Class Members, Defendant had a duty to adequately protect its data systems and the PII contained therein.

94. Plaintiff's and Class Members' willingness to entrust Defendant with their PII was predicated on the understanding that Defendant would take adequate security precautions.

95. Moreover, only Defendant had the ability to protect its systems and the PII is stored on them from attack. Thus, Defendant had a special relationship with Plaintiff and Class Members.

96. Defendant also had independent duties under state and federal laws that required Defendant to reasonably safeguard Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and promptly notify them about the Data Breach. These "independent duties" are untethered to any contract between Defendant, Plaintiff, and/or the remaining Class Members.

97. Defendant breached its general duty of care to Plaintiff and Class Members in, but not necessarily limited to, the following ways:

- a. by failing to provide fair, reasonable, or adequate computer systems and data security practices to safeguard the PII of Plaintiff and Class Members;
- b. by failing to timely and accurately disclose that Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII had been improperly acquired or accessed;
- c. by failing to adequately protect and safeguard the PII by knowingly disregarding standard information security principles, despite obvious risks, and by allowing unmonitored and unrestricted access to unsecured PII;
- d. by failing to provide adequate supervision and oversight of the PII with which it was and is entrusted, in spite of the known risk and foreseeable likelihood of breach and misuse, which permitted an unknown third party to gather PII of Plaintiff and Class Members, misuse the PII and intentionally disclose it to others without consent.
- e. by failing to adequately train its employees not to store PII longer than absolutely necessary;
- f. by failing to consistently enforce security policies aimed at protecting Plaintiff's and the Class Members' PII;
- g. by failing to implement processes to detect data breaches, security incidents, or intrusions quickly; and

h. by failing to encrypt Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and monitor user behavior and activity in order to identify possible threats.

98. Defendant's willful failure to abide by these duties was wrongful, reckless, and grossly negligent in light of the foreseeable risks and known threats.

99. As a proximate and foreseeable result of Defendant's grossly negligent conduct, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered damages and are at imminent risk of additional harms and damages.

100. The law further imposes an affirmative duty on Defendant to timely disclose the unauthorized access and theft of the PII to Plaintiff and Class Members so that they could and/or still can take appropriate measures to mitigate damages, protect against adverse consequences and thwart future misuse of their PII.

101. Defendant breached its duty to notify Plaintiff and Class Members of the unauthorized access by waiting months after learning of the Data Breach to notify Plaintiff and Class Members and then by failing and continuing to fail to provide Plaintiff and Class Members sufficient information regarding the breach.

102. To date, Defendant has not provided sufficient information to Plaintiff and Class Members regarding the extent of the unauthorized access and continues to breach its disclosure obligations to Plaintiff and Class Members.

103. Further, through its failure to provide timely and clear notification of the Data Breach to Plaintiff and Class Members, Defendant prevented Plaintiff and Class Members from taking meaningful, proactive steps to secure their PII.

104. There is a close causal connection between Defendant's failure to implement security measures to protect the PII of Plaintiff and Class Members and the harm suffered, or risk of imminent harm suffered by Plaintiff and Class Members.

105. Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII was accessed as the proximate result of Defendant's failure to exercise reasonable care in safeguarding such PII by adopting, implementing, and maintaining appropriate security measures.

106. Defendant's wrongful actions, inactions, and omissions constituted (and continue to constitute) common law negligence.

107. The damages Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered (as alleged above) and will suffer were and are the direct and proximate result of Defendant's grossly negligent conduct.

108. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's negligence and negligence per se, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered and will suffer injury, including but not limited to: (i) actual identity theft; (ii) the loss of the opportunity of how their PII is used; (iii) the compromise, publication, and/or theft of their PII; (iv) out-of-pocket expenses associated with the prevention, detection, and recovery from identity theft, tax fraud, and/or unauthorized use of their PII; (v) lost opportunity costs associated with effort expended and the loss of productivity addressing and attempting to mitigate the actual and future consequences of the Data Breach, including but not limited to, efforts spent researching how to prevent, detect, contest, and recover from embarrassment and identity theft; (vi) the continued risk to their PII, which may remain in Defendant's possession and is subject to further unauthorized disclosures so long as Defendant fails to undertake appropriate and adequate measures to protect Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII in its continued possession; and (vii) future costs in terms of time, effort, and money that will be expended to prevent, detect, contest, and repair the impact of the PII compromised as a result of the Data Breach for the remainder of the lives of Plaintiff and Class Members.

109. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's negligence and negligence per se, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered and will continue to suffer other forms of injury and/or harm, including, but not limited to, anxiety, emotional distress, loss of privacy, and other economic and non-economic losses.

110. Additionally, as a direct and proximate result of Defendant's negligence, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered and will suffer the continued risks of exposure of their PII, which remain in Defendant's possession and are subject to further unauthorized disclosures so long as Defendant fails to undertake appropriate and adequate measures to protect the PII in its continued possession.

COUNT TWO
Breach of Implied Contract
(On behalf of the Class)

111. Plaintiff realleges and reincorporates every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

112. Through its course of conduct, Defendant, Plaintiff and Class Members entered into implied contracts for Defendant to implement data security adequate to safeguard and protect the privacy of Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII.

113. Defendant required Plaintiff and Class Members to provide and entrust their PII as a condition of obtaining Defendant's services.

114. Defendant solicited and invited Plaintiff and Class Members to provide their PII as part of Defendant's regular business practices.

115. Plaintiff and Class Members accepted Defendant's offers and provided their PII to Defendant.

116. As a condition of their relationship with Defendant, Plaintiff and Class Members provided and entrusted their PII to Defendant.

117. In so doing, Plaintiff and Class Members entered into implied contracts with Defendant by which Defendant agreed to safeguard and protect such non-public information, to keep such information secure and confidential, and to timely and accurately notify Plaintiff and Class Members if their data had been breached and compromised or stolen.

118. A meeting of the minds occurred when Plaintiff and Class Members agreed to, and did, provide their PII to Defendant, in exchange for, amongst other things, the protection of their PII.

119. Plaintiff and Class Members fully performed their obligations under the implied contracts with Defendant.

120. Defendant breached its implied contracts with Plaintiff and Class Members by failing to safeguard and protect their PII and by failing to provide timely and accurate notice to them that their PII was compromised as a result of the Data Breach.

121. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's above-described breach of implied contract, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered (and will continue to suffer) (a) ongoing, imminent, and impending threat of identity theft crimes, fraud, and abuse, resulting in monetary loss and economic harm; (b) actual identity theft crimes, fraud, and abuse, resulting in monetary loss and economic harm; (c) loss of the confidentiality of the stolen confidential data; (d) the illegal sale of the compromised data on the dark web; (e) lost work time; and (f) other economic and non-economic harm.

COUNT THREE
Breach of the Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing
(On behalf of the Class)

122. Plaintiff realleges and reincorporates every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

123. Every contract in this State has an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, which is an independent duty and may be breached even when there is no breach of a contract's actual and/or express terms.

124. Plaintiff and Class Members have complied with and performed all conditions of their contracts with Defendant.

125. Defendant breached the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing by failing to maintain adequate computer systems and data security practices to safeguard PII, failing to timely and accurately disclose the Data Breach to Plaintiff and Class Members and continued acceptance of PII and storage of other personal information after Defendant knew, or should have known, of the security vulnerabilities of the systems that were exploited in the Data Breach.

126. Defendant acted in bad faith and/or with malicious motive in denying Plaintiff and Class Members the full benefit of their bargains as originally intended by the parties, thereby causing them injury in an amount to be determined at trial.

COUNT FOUR
Unjust Enrichment
(On behalf of the Class)

127. Plaintiff realleges and reincorporates every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

128. By its wrongful acts and omissions described herein, Defendant has obtained a benefit by unduly taking advantage of Plaintiff and Class Members.

129. Defendant, prior to and at the time Plaintiff and Class Members entrusted their PII to Defendant, caused Plaintiff and Class Members to reasonably believe that Defendant would keep such PII secure.

130. Defendant was aware, or should have been aware, that reasonable patients and consumers would have wanted their PII kept secure and would not have contracted with Defendant, directly or indirectly, had they known that Defendant's information systems were sub-standard for that purpose.

131. Defendant was also aware that, if the substandard condition of and vulnerabilities in its information systems were disclosed, it would negatively affect Plaintiff's and Class Members' decisions to seek services therefrom.

132. Defendant failed to disclose facts pertaining to its substandard information systems, defects, and vulnerabilities therein before Plaintiff and Class Members made their decisions to make purchases, engage in commerce therewith, and seek services or information.

133. Instead, Defendant suppressed and concealed such information. By concealing and suppressing that information, Defendant denied Plaintiff and Class Members the ability to make a rational and informed purchasing and servicing decision and took undue advantage of Plaintiff and Class Members.

134. Defendant was unjustly enriched at the expense of Plaintiff and Class Members, as Defendant received profits, benefits, and compensation, in part, at the expense of Plaintiff and Class Members; however, Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive the benefit of their bargain because they paid for products and or services that did not satisfy the purposes for which they bought/sought them.

135. Since Defendant's profits, benefits, and other compensation were obtained improperly, Defendant is not legally or equitably entitled to retain any of the benefits, compensation or profits it realized from these transactions.

136. Plaintiff and Class Members seek an Order of this Court requiring Defendant to refund, disgorge, and pay as restitution any profits, benefits and other compensation obtained by Defendant from its wrongful conduct and/or the establishment of a constructive trust from which Plaintiff and Class Members may seek restitution.

COUNT FIVE
Virginia Consumer Protection Act
Va. Code Ann. §§ 59.1-196, et seq.
(On Behalf of Plaintiff and the Virginia Subclass)

137. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding allegations, as if fully set forth herein, and brings this Count on behalf of himself and the Virginia Subclass (the “Class” for the purposes of this Count).

138. The Virginia Consumer Protection Act prohibit “[u]sing any...deception, fraud, false pretense, false promise, or misrepresentation in connection with a consumer transaction.” Va. Code Ann. § 59.1-200(14).

139. Defendant is a “person” as defined by Va. Code Ann. § 59.1-198.

140. Defendant is a “supplier,” as defined by Va. Code Ann. § 59.1-198.

141. Defendant engaged in the complained-of conduct in connection with “consumer transactions” with regard to “goods” and “services,” as defined by Va. Code Ann. § 59.1-198. Defendant advertised, offered, or sold goods or services used primarily for personal, family, or household purposes; or relating to an individual’s seeking of healthcare.

142. Defendant engaged in deceptive acts and practices by using deception, fraud, false pretense, false promise, and misrepresentation in connection with consumer transactions, including:

- a. Failing to implement and maintain reasonable security and privacy measures to protect Plaintiff’s and Class Members’ PII, which was a

- direct and proximate cause of the Data Breach;
- b. Failing to identify and remediate foreseeable security and privacy risks and adequately improve security and privacy measures despite knowing the risk of cybersecurity incidents, which was a direct and proximate cause of the Data Breach;
 - c. Failing to comply with common law and statutory duties pertaining to the security and privacy of Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII, including duties imposed by the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45, which was a direct and proximate cause of the Data Breach;
 - d. Misrepresenting that it would protect the privacy and confidentiality of Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII, including by implementing and maintaining reasonable security measures;
 - e. Misrepresenting that it would comply with common law and statutory duties pertaining to the security and privacy of Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII, including duties imposed by the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45;
 - f. Omitting, suppressing, and concealing the material fact that it did not reasonably or adequately secure Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII; and
 - g. Omitting, suppressing, and concealing the material fact that it did not comply with common law and statutory duties pertaining to the security and privacy of Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII, including duties imposed by the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45.

143. Defendant intended to mislead Plaintiff and Class Members and induce them to rely on its misrepresentations and omissions.

144. Defendant's representations and omissions were material because they were likely to deceive reasonable consumers, including Plaintiff and Class Members, about the adequacy of Defendant's computer and data security and the quality of the Defendant brand.

145. Had Defendant disclosed to Plaintiff and Class Members that its data systems were not secure and, thus, vulnerable to attack, Defendant would have been unable to continue in business and it would have been forced to adopt reasonable data security measures and comply with the law. Defendant was trusted with sensitive and valuable PII regarding millions of consumers, including Plaintiff and the Class. Defendant accepted the responsibility of protecting the data while keeping the inadequate state of its security controls secret from the public. Accordingly, Plaintiff and the Class Members acted reasonably in relying on Defendant's misrepresentations and omissions, the truth of which they could not have discovered.

146. Defendant had a duty to disclose these facts due to the circumstances of this case, the sensitivity and extensivity of the PII in its possession, and the generally accepted professional standards. Such a duty is implied by law due to the nature of the relationship between consumers including Plaintiff and the Class – and Defendant, because consumers are unable to fully protect their interests with regard to their data, and placed trust and confidence in Defendant. Defendant's duty to disclose also arose from its:

- a. Possession of exclusive knowledge regarding the security of the data in its systems;
- b. Active concealment of the state of its security; and/or

c. Incomplete representations about the security and integrity of its computer and data systems, and its prior data breaches, while purposefully withholding material facts from Plaintiff and the Class that contradicted these representations.

147. The above-described deceptive acts and practices also violated the following provisions of VA Code § 59.1-200(A):

- a. Misrepresenting that goods or services have certain characteristics, uses, or benefits;
- b. Misrepresenting that goods or services are of a particular standard, quality, grade, style, or model;
- c. Advertising goods or services with intent not to sell them as advertised, or with intent not to sell them upon the terms advertised;
- d. Using any other deception, fraud, false pretense, false promise, or misrepresentation in connection with a consumer transaction.

148. Defendant acted intentionally, knowingly, and maliciously to violate Virginia's Consumer Protection Act, and recklessly disregarded Plaintiff and Class Members' rights. Numerous past data breaches in Defendant's field put it on notice that its security and privacy protections were inadequate. An award of punitive damages would serve to punish Defendant for its wrongdoing, and warn or deter others from engaging in similar conduct.

149. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's deceptive acts or practices, Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered and will continue to suffer injury, ascertainable losses of money or property, and monetary and non-monetary damages, as described herein, including but not limited to fraud and identity theft; time and expenses related to monitoring their financial accounts for fraudulent activity; an increased, imminent risk of fraud and identity theft; loss of value of their PII; overpayment for Defendant's services; loss of the value of access to their PII; and the value of identity protection services made necessary by the Breach.

150. Defendant's violations present a continuing risk to Plaintiff and Class Members as well as to the general public.

151. Plaintiff and Class Members seek all monetary and non-monetary relief allowed by law, including actual damages; statutory damages in the amount of $1,000 per violation if the conduct is found to be willful or, in the alternative, $500 per violation; restitution; injunctive relief; punitive damages; and attorneys' fees and costs.

COUNT SIX

Negligence Per Se – Based on the Virginia Personal Information Breach Notification Act (On Behalf of Plaintiff and the Virginia Class)

152. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference all preceding allegations, as if fully set forth herein, and brings this Count on behalf of himself and the Virginia Subclass (the "Class" for the purposes of this Count).

153. Defendant is required to accurately notify Plaintiff and Class Members following discovery or notification of a breach of its data security system if unencrypted or unredacted PII was or is reasonably believed to have been accessed and acquired by an unauthorized person who will, or it is reasonably believed who will, engage in identity theft or another fraud, without unreasonable delay under Va. Code Ann. § 18.2-186.6(B).

154. Defendant is an entity that owns or licenses computerized data that includes PII as defined by Va. Code Ann. § 18.2-186.6(B).

155. Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII includes Private Information as covered under Va. Code Ann. § 18.2-186.6(A).

156. Because Defendant discovered a breach of its security system in which unencrypted or unredacted PII was or is reasonably believed to have been accessed and acquired by an unauthorized person, who will, or it is reasonably believed who will, engage in identity theft or another fraud, Defendant had an obligation to disclose the data breach in a timely and accurate fashion as mandated by Va. Code Ann. § 18.2-186.6(B).

157. By failing to disclose the Defendant data breach in a timely and accurate manner, Defendant violated Va. Code Ann. § 18.2-186.6(B).

158. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's violations of Va. Code Ann. § 18.2-186.6(B), Plaintiff and Class Members suffered damages, as described above.

159. The harm that occurred as a result of the Data Breach is the type of harm the Virginia Personal Information Breach Notification Act was intended to guard against.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of themself and each member of the proposed Class, respectfully request that the Court enter judgment in their favor and for the following specific relief against Defendant as follows:

1. That the Court declare, adjudge, and decree that this action is a proper class action and certify the proposed class and/or Virginia Subclass under F.R.C.P. Rule 23 (b)(1), (b)(2), and/or (b)(3), including the appointment of Plaintiff's counsel as Class Counsel;
2. For an award of damages, including actual, nominal, and consequential damages, as allowed by law in an amount to be determined;
3. That the Court enjoin Defendant, ordering them to cease from unlawful activities;
4. For equitable relief enjoining Defendant from engaging in the wrongful conduct complained of herein pertaining to the misuse and/or disclosure of Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII, and from refusing to issue prompt, complete, and accurate disclosures to Plaintiff and Class Members;
5. For injunctive relief requested by Plaintiff, including but not limited to, injunctive and other equitable relief as is necessary to protect the interests of Plaintiff and Class Members, including but not limited to an Order:
 - a. prohibiting Defendant from engaging in the wrongful and unlawful acts described herein;
 - b. requiring Defendant to protect, including through encryption, all data collected through the course of business in accordance with all applicable regulations, industry standards, and federal, state, or local

- laws;
- c. requiring Defendant to delete and purge the PII of Plaintiff and Class Members unless Defendant can provide to the Court reasonable justification for the retention and use of such information when weighed against the privacy interests of Plaintiff and Class Members;
 - d. requiring Defendant to implement and maintain a comprehensive Information Security Program designed to protect the confidentiality and integrity of Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII;
 - e. requiring Defendant to engage independent third-party security auditors and internal personnel to run automated security monitoring, simulated attacks, penetration tests, and audits on Defendant's systems periodically;
 - f. prohibiting Defendant from maintaining Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII on a cloud-based database;
 - g. requiring Defendant to segment data by creating firewalls and access controls so that, if one area of Defendant's network is compromised, hackers cannot gain access to other portions of Defendant's systems;
 - h. requiring Defendant to conduct regular database scanning and securing checks;
 - i. requiring Defendant to establish an information security training program that includes at least annual information security training for all employees, with additional training to be provided as appropriate based upon the employees' respective responsibilities with handling PII, as

- well as protecting the PII of Plaintiff and Class Members;
- j. requiring Defendant to implement a system of tests to assess its respective employees' knowledge of the education programs discussed in the preceding subparagraphs, as well as randomly and periodically testing employees' compliance with Defendant's policies, programs, and systems for protecting personal identifying information;
 - k. requiring Defendant to implement, maintain, review, and revise as necessary a threat management program to monitor Defendant's networks for internal and external threats appropriately, and assess whether monitoring tools are properly configured, tested, and updated; and
 - l. requiring Defendant to meaningfully educate all Class Members about the threats they face due to the loss of their confidential personal identifying information to third parties, as well as the steps affected individuals must take to protect themselves.
- 6. For prejudgment interest on all amounts awarded, at the prevailing legal rate;
 - 7. For an award of attorney's fees, costs, and litigation expenses, as allowed by law; and
 - 8. For all other Orders, findings, and determinations identified and sought in this Complaint.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the Class, hereby demands a trial by jury for all issues triable by jury.
